1 Peter 5:6-10

<sup>6</sup> Humble yourselves, therefore, under the mighty hand of God so that at the proper time he may exalt you, <sup>7</sup> casting all your anxieties on him, because he cares for you. <sup>8</sup> Be sober-minded; be watchful. Your adversary the devil prowls around like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour.

1 Peter 5:6-10

<sup>9</sup> Resist him, firm in your faith, knowing that the same kinds of suffering are being experienced by your brotherhood throughout the world. <sup>10</sup> And after you have suffered a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, confirm, strengthen, and establish you.

Humbling Yourself Under God's Hand Is...

- Bending my will for my life to God's will
- Trusting in God's timing
- Being dependent on God

The background is a dark, mottled blue-grey color with a rough, weathered texture, possibly resembling old wood or metal. There are several small, light-colored spots and scratches scattered across the surface. A semi-transparent grey rectangular box is centered on the page, containing white text. The text is a quote by Charles Spurgeon about prayer and faith.

“Prayer tells God what the care is, and asks God to help, while faith believes that God can and will do it. Prayer spreads the letter of trouble and grief before the Lord, and then faith cries, ‘I believe that God cares, and cares for me; I believe that he will bring me out of my distress, and make it promote his own glory.’”

The quote discusses the errors of disbelief and excessive belief in devils.

“There are two equal and opposite errors into which our race can fall about the devils. One is to disbelieve in their existence. The other is to believe, and to feel an excessive and unhealthy interest in them. They themselves are equally pleased by both errors, and hail a materialist or magician with the same delight.
